Copyrights. All content, photographs, audio, video clips, and other material contained on this site is proprietary information and the exclusive property of Human Resource Consulting Group (HRCG) or its licensors and is protected by U.S. and international copyright laws. All rights not expressly granted are reserved.

Permissible Uses. You are hereby granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to access, download, display, and print the content on this site for your internal business use. You may not otherwise reproduce, distribute, sell, disclose or attempt to reverse engineer the content without prior written approval. You may post on the website any content owned by you (such as your original statements), content for which you have received express permission from the owner, and content in the public domain. You assume all risk and responsibility for determining whether any content is in the public domain. Although we are not responsible or liable for content posted on the website by other users, we reserve the right to remove any content which we deem offensive, inappropriate, or illegal.

All requests for permission to reprint, link, or otherwise interface with content on this site or any other site owned and/or administered by HRCG should be addressed to support@HRCG.com.

Your Privacy

Personal Information

When you log in, we need to know your name, title and e-mail address. Your company administrator will also be asked to complete a few questions regarding your organization. This allows us to identify who you are and what company you belong to. We may also use the information we collect to occasionally notify you about important changes to the web site and new services we think you'll find valuable. HRCG will not sell your information to other businesses.

Confidentiality

When you download or view documents of a professional nature we offer the use of a secure server. The secure server software (SSL) encrypts information that is sent to you and protects against unauthorized access.

Cookies

“Cookies” are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer’s hard drive. The use of cookies is an industry standard to provide useful features to our customers. Our cookies do not contain any personally identifying information, but they do enable us to provide features such as administrative guides and e-client. Your web browser may be set to notify you when you are about to accept a cookie. You can change this setting to accept cookies without notification by going into your browser preferences. If you refuse to accept a cookie while on HRCG you will not be able to access portions of this site.
